

Hone Men's HRT Membership Overview and Payment Breakdown

Last updated May 28, 2026. Data beyond this date may not reflect current figures.

Your Hone Health Membership is part of an annual clinical program specifically for Men's Hormone Replacement Therapy (HRT). The total cost is $1,548 per year, not including the cost of any prescribed medications. You are charged 1/12 of the annual fee each month and may cancel at any time. Hone processes these payments for your convenience.

Itemized Breakdown of the Membership Cost

- $780.00 — Payable to Broad Health P.A. or other affiliated medical practices for clinical services and medical consultations
- $78.00 — Payable to the clinical laboratory for lab testing
- $690.00 — Payable to Hone (Time Therapeutics, Inc.) for non-clinical membership benefits, including access to the online platform, technology tools, member support, credit card processing fees, and operational services

Refund Policy

If, after your initial consultation, your physician determines that treatment is not appropriate based on medical judgment and your lab results, you will receive a full refund of the initial $129 membership fee.
