

Hone Basic Membership Overview and Payment Breakdown

Last updated May 28, 2026. Data beyond this date may not reflect current figures.

Your Hone Health Membership is based on an annual clinical program, with total costs of $300 per year, excluding medication costs. You will be charged 1/12 of the annual fee each month and may cancel at any time. As a convenience to you, Hone serves as your payment processing agent for the fees. The itemized price breakdown is as follows:

- $120.00 is payable to Broad Health P.A. or the other affiliated-medical practices for your clinical services and medical consults.
- $140.00 is payable to the clinical laboratory for lab testing.
- $40.00 is payable to Hone (Time Therapeutics, Inc.) for non-clinical membership benefits (e.g., access to the online platform, technology, member support, credit card processing fees, and operational services).

The Membership can be cancelled at any time, but any fees paid are not refundable.
